

Sector Approach:

* A sector approach is a way to focus on specific sectors to address needs and improve performance.

* A combination of policies and measures, developed to enhance efficient sector-by-sector, greenhouse gas mitigation, within the UN Framework Convention on climate change.

* A sector approach does not impose growth limits on developing countries. on the contrary, emissions efficiency goals can move an industry sector towards improved efficiency and improved competitiveness with better economic results.

[Signature]